A. DEFINITIONS

Access Number This is the telephone number which a Customer uses to access Company's computer in order to be connected to Company's system.

Association Discount An additional discount provided to a trade association representing business entities or individuals within an industry, professional or business classification, or a commercial organization with affiliated franchises, independent agents, distributors, or multiple commercial representatives or a buying group not organized solely for the purposes of qualifying for the discounts provided for herein to commercial associations.

Authorized User A person, firm, corporation or other legal entity which is authorized by the Customer to utilize or be connected to the service of the Customer. An authorized user is other than an employee, officer or director of Customer if Customer is a company, and other than a family member of person residing with Customer if customer is a residential user. Customer is responsible for all charges incurred by Authorized Users.

Company BUSINESS TELECOM, INC., 4300 Six Forks Road, Suite #500, Raleigh, North Carolina, 27609, a North Carolina corporation.

Customer The natural person or legal entity which orders Service and is responsible for the payment of charges accruing as a result of using the Service. Customers are divided into commercial and residential classes, but only for accounting purposes.

Customer Identification Number A numerical code which is assigned to each Customer to enable the Customer to access Company's Service. A Customer with several Authorized Users may have several different numerical codes. Customer Identification Numbers are used by the Company both to prevent unauthorized access to the Service and to identify Customers for billing purposes.

Facilities Company's facilities consist of facilities which Company leases and for which Company renders a bill for payment to its Customers, whether or not such Facilities are actually owned by Company. Company's Facilities also include the computerized switching equipment which is used by Company to connect Customer's local call to a facility provided by an underlying facilities-based long distance Carrier over whose circuits the Customer's call is routed.

Itemized Billing A billing report which indicates the telephone number to which calls are made and the duration of each call.

InterLATA Calls which originate and terminate between points in Local Access Transport Areas (LATAs). LATAs are large local and regional telephone service areas that are defined pursuant to the 1982 Consent Decree between the United States Department of Justice and American Telephone and Telegraph Company and participating Carriers.

IntraLATA Calls which originate and terminate within the same LATA.

Intrastate Calls which originate and terminate between any two points in South Carolina. Intrastate calls can be InterLATA or IntraLATA.

Management Report A billing report which assists management in monitoring calls made by Authorized Users by listing calls by Customer Identification Numbers and Project Codes.

Mileage In calculating rates based on mileage, the measurement of distance is the air miles between the offices of the local telephone companies which originate and terminate the calls.

Project Codes A number sequence which is dialed after the Customer Identification Number which is used by Customer to identify to which project or client a call should be billed.

B. Billing and Collection of Charges

The Customer is responsible for payment of all charges incurred by the Customer or other users for services and facilities furnished to the Customer by the Company.

1. When billing is based upon Customer usage, usage charges will be billed monthly for the preceding billing period.
2. When service does not begin on the first day of the month, or end on the last day of the month, the charge for the fraction of the month in which service was furnished will be calculated on a pro rata basis. For this purpose, every month is considered to have thirty (30) days.
3. The Customer must notify the Company of any disputed items on an invoice within sixty (60) days of the date of the invoice. If the Customer does not provide written notice to the Company of a dispute with respect to the amounts invoiced within sixty (60) days of the date of the invoice, the invoice shall be deemed correct and binding on the Customer for all purposes.
4. If the Customer and the Company are unable to resolve the dispute to their mutual satisfaction, the Customer may file a complaint with the West Virginia Public Service Commission in accordance with the Commission's rules of procedure. The address of the Commission is as follows:

10. Interruption of Service

- a. The Customer shall notify the Company immediately in the event of any interruption in Service and shall assist the Company in restoring the Service. The Customer shall notify the Company immediately of its desire to receive a credit allowance for such interruption.
- b. No credit shall be allowed for interruptions that result from the Customer's fault or the Company's testing or regularly scheduled maintenance or for any reason that constitutes Force Majeure as defined in Section 2.15.
- c. For purposes of credit computation, every month shall be considered to have 720 hours.
- d. No credit shall be allowed for an interruption of a continuous duration of less than two (2) hours.
- e. The Customer shall be credited for an interruption of two (2) hours or more at the rate of 1/720th of the monthly charge for the facilities affected for each hour that the interruption continues.
- f. This credit applies only to monthly recurring charges and does not affect any charges based upon the Customer's actual usage of the Service(s). This credit applies against future service only and shall not reduce the amount of any outstanding balance. All limitations of liability shall apply to the total of all credits issued.

C. Cancellation by the Customer with Cause

A customer may have his service disconnected upon written notice to Carrier. The Carrier will hold the customer responsible for payment of all bills for service furnished until the cancellation date specified by the customer or until the date written cancellation notice is received, whichever is later. The Customer must provide 60 days written notice of cancellation in advance.

In the event (i) the Company fails to substantially cure any material default or failure of performance within thirty (30) days after the Company's receipt of the Customer's written notice describing with reasonable specificity such alleged material default or failure of performance, or (ii) if such default cannot be cured within such thirty (30) day period and the Company does within such thirty (30) day period commence such acts as shall be reasonably necessary to substantially cure the default and/or does not diligently complete such acts within a reasonable time, the Customer may terminate the Service(s) for Cause by giving the Company a written notice of termination within fifteen (15) days after the expiration of said thirty (30) day period or such reasonable time period in the event of (ii), above. If the Customer is receiving multiple types of Services, or receiving Services at multiple locations, the Customer's right to terminate Service(s) as set forth in this section shall be limited to termination of the affected Service(s) only or at the affected location(s) only.

D. Cancellation by the Company

1. Upon such notice as is required by the governing regulatory body (or if no such notice is required, upon forty-eight (48) hours notice), the Company may refuse, terminate, discontinue or limit the use of Service (either temporarily or permanently) to the Customer or withhold the provision of ordered or contracted Service, without liability to the Customer:
 - a. if any balance is past due;
 - b. if the Customer exceeds its credit limit and does not cure within the applicable notice period referenced above in this section after receipt of such notice, which such notice may be by phone, mail, fax or e-mail;
 - c. when necessitated by conditions beyond the Company's control;
 - d. for violation of any of the provisions contained in this tariff and/or the Customer's Agreement with the Company, including the Terms and Conditions;
 - e. for violation of any law, rule, regulation or policy of any governing authority having jurisdiction over the Service; or
 - f. by reason of any order or decision of a court, public service commission or federal regulatory body or other governing authority prohibiting the Company from furnishing the Service.

D. Cancellation by the Company, (cont'd.)

2. In addition, the Company may immediately and without notice terminate and/or block Services without incurring liability to the Customer for the following reasons:

- a. fraud committed by the Customer or a user of the Customer's Service;
- b. if the Customer refuses to furnish information or furnishes false information essential for billing by the Company or for the Company's determination of the Customer's credit worthiness;
- c. the Customer indicates that the Customer will not comply with a request from the Company for security for the payment of Services;
- d. the Customer has received notice of cancellation from the Customer's local Service provider; or
- e. the Customer's usage exceeds parameters based on historical usage by the Customer.

In the event the Company permanently terminates Service to the Customer under this section, any agreement between the Customer and the Company, including Terms and Conditions, shall terminate. The Customer shall be liable for all liquidated damages as set forth in Section 13.(2) for all Services terminated under this Section.

13. Cancellation of Service, (Cont'd.)

E. Cancellation as a result of a change in local service provider

The Customer shall notify the Company if the Customer changes its local service provider for any reason, including, without limitation, as a result of a change in physical location. If the Customer obtains only long distance service from the Company, upon a change of local service provider by the Customer, the Company reserves the right to terminate long distance service to the Customer upon thirty (30) days written notice to the Customer. In the event the Company exercises its right to terminate long distance service to the Customer because the Customer changes its local service provider, the Customer shall be liable to the Company only for payment of long distance service provided up to and including the effective date of termination of such long distance service and shall not be liable for any liquidated damages with respect to such long distance service only.

F. Final Invoice

Upon termination, the Company shall forward a final invoice to the Customer, which such invoice will include, without limitation, all charges (including, without limitation, recurring charges) incurred up to the effective termination date and all applicable liquidated damages.

14. Restoration of Service

- a. Service suspended by the Company and later restored, will be subject to a $50.00 reconnection fee. Service disconnected by the Company and later re-installed, will be subject to all applicable installation charges, and the Customer will pay such charges prior to reinstallation of service.
- b. The use and restoration of certain telecommunications services in emergencies shall be in accordance with the priority system specified in Part 64, Subpart D of the Rules and Regulations of the Federal Communications Commission.

15. Force Majeure

The Company's performance hereunder shall be excused in the event of any delay or failure of performance or equipment due to causes beyond the Company's control, including, but not limited to, acts of God, fires, floods, earthquakes, hurricanes, or other catastrophes, national emergencies, insurrections, riots, wars, or other civil commotions, strikes, lockouts, work stoppages or other labor difficulties, criminal actions taken against the Company, cable cuts, unavailability, failure, interruption or capacity limitations of telecommunications facilities or transmission links (digital or analog) and any law, order, regulation or other action of any governing authority or agency thereof.

16. Disconnection of Existing Service(s) and Vendor Change(s)

The Customer is responsible for disconnection of services with the Customer's existing telecommunications provider. The Company is not responsible for any fees or other charges assessed against the Customer by the Customer's existing provider for termination of service obtained from such provider or the Customer's failure to terminate services with such provider. In addition, the Customer is responsible for all charges assessed by the Customer's phone system vendor and other third parties incurred in connection with the installation or alteration of the Company Services.

17. Assignments

The Customer may not transfer or assign the Customer's Agreement with the Company, including the Terms and Conditions, or use of any of the Services (including resale and subtending of Internet service) without the written consent of the Company, which such consent shall be at the sole and absolute discretion of the Company. All regulations and conditions contained in this Tariff shall be binding on the Customer and his/her respective personal and legal representatives, successors and permitted assigns.

18. Special Service

Labor and expenditures required by Customer to provide service outside the scope of normal services. This class of service includes, without limitation, services whereby Company is required to incur unusual costs for engineering, purchases, labor or other related costs to provide the Customer-requested service.

19. Modification

Company reserves the right to modify its rates and service policies at any time, subject to approval of the West Virginia Public Service Commission and compliance with applicable notification requirements.

2.0 Taxes and Other Charges

All state and local taxes (i.e., gross receipts tax, sales tax, municipal and county utilities tax) are listed as separate line items, are not included in the quoted rates, and are the responsibility of the Customer. The Customer is also responsible for the payment of any use, excise, access, franchise and license fees or other local, state and federal taxes, charges or surcharges (however designated) excluding taxes on the Company's net income, imposed on or based upon the provision, sale or use of services. Any taxes imposed by a local jurisdiction will only be recovered from those Customers located in the affected jurisdiction. It shall be the responsibility of the Customer to pay any such taxes that subsequently become applicable retroactively.

C. DESCRIPTION OF SERVICE

1. General

BTI provides direct dialed, travel card and operator assisted long distance telecommunications services originating and terminating within the State of West Virginia. Rates for these services may vary by product type, call duration, mileage and time of day. All BTI services are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

2. Timing of Calls

Long distance charges are based on the actual usage of BTI's network. Chargeable time begins when the called party answers, or when the billed party of a collect or person call accepts the charges. Chargeable time ends when either party disconnects.

Minimum call durations and rounding of usage measurements for billing purposes are specified in Section 4 of this tariff for each service provided by the Company.

There is no billing applied for incomplete calls.

The appropriate rates apply for day, evening and night/weekend calls based on the following chart.

Times	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thur	Fri	Sat	Sun
8:00 am to 5:00 pm*	Daytime Period
5:00 pm to 11:00 pm*	Evening Period						Eve.

3. Calculation of Distance

(C)

Usage charges for all mileage sensitive products are based on the airline distance between rate centers associated with the originating and terminating points of the call.

The airline mileage between rate centers is determined by applying the formula below to the vertical and horizontal coordinates associated with the rate centers involved. The Company uses the rate centers and associated vertical and horizontal coordinates that are produced by Bell Communications Research in the NPA-NXX V & H Coordinates Tape and Bell's NECA Tariff No. 4.

Formula =

$$\sqrt{\frac{(V1 - V2)^2 + (H1 - H2)^2}{10}}$$

4. Directory Assistance

(C)

4.1 Directory Assistance Service

(C)

This service is provided on a pass-through basis to a carrier offering directory assistance. Billing is provided by Company at a flat rate of $0.75 per call provided the Customer dials Directory Assistance using the Company switch. Charges for Directory Assistance shall not be applied to subscribers who are blind or physically handicapped to the extent they are unable to use the telephone directory.

C. DESCRIPTON OF SERVICE (continued)

4.2 Directory Assistance Call Completion

Directory Assistance Call Completion (DACC) is an optional service available for business and residential Customers accessing the Company's Directory Assistance Service. Directory Assistance Customers may choose to have the Company Directory Assistance Operator complete the call to the telephone number requested without requiring the Customer to redial the number. A Directory Assistance Call Completion Surcharge will apply whether or not the call is answered by the called party or the calling party receives a busy signal. These charges are in addition to the Directory Assistance charge for determining the telephone number requested by the Customer and in addition to any applicable Operator Service charges associated with placing the call.

This service is available where facilities permit and may not be available to all Customers.

(1) Per Call Completion requested: $0.45

(2) Per Minute Rate:

The per minute rate shall be the per minute rate of the 1+ plan the Customer is subscribed to or enrolled in at the time of the call.

4. Service Offerings

1. BTI One Plus Services

BTI One Plus Services are available for business and residential customers who; 1) subscribe their local access lines to BTI's network, 2) dial the Company's access code to gain access to the BTI network, or 3) purchase dedicated access facilities from other service providers to connect their premises to BTI's network facilities.

BTI One Plus Services are listed in Section D following. The minimum and additional billing increments, as well as any applicable recurring and non-recurring charges are provided for each specific service.

2. BTI Travel Card Services

BTI Travel Card Service permits customers to place calls using BTI's service when away from their primary place of business or residence. Callers must dial an "800" access code and individual identification number to use the service.

BTI Travel Card Services are listed in Section D following. The minimum and additional billing increments, as well as any applicable per call service charges are provided for each specific service.

3. BTI Operator Services

BTI Operator Services are available to subscriber locations which offer their telephones for the use of the transient public. BTI provides the following billing arrangements for End Users of BTI's Operator Services:

a) Customer Dialed Calling/Credit Card

This is a service whereby the end user dials all of the digits necessary to route and bill the call without any operator assistance. Such calls may be billed either to a telephone company issued calling card or a commercial credit card.

b) Operator Station

This is a service whereby the caller places a non-person-to-person call with the assistance of an operator (live or automated). When placing an operator station call, the caller is connected to a non-specified individual at the terminating end. Such calls may be billed to a calling card, credit card, the called number (collect) or a valid third party telephone number.

c) Person-to-Person

This is a service whereby the person originating the call specifies to BTI's operator a particular person to be reached, or a particular person, station, room number, department, or office to be reached through a PBX attendant. Person-to-person calls may be billed to a calling card, credit card, the called number (collect) or a valid third party telephone number.

3.1 Sixty Minutes for 14 a Minute Promotion

BTI will offer the following intrastate promotion to Customers who sign up for the Company's complimentary interstate promotion through March 1, 1996. To be eligible, Customers must: 1) contact the Company to request the promotion, or 2) respond positively to marketing material from the Company or an authorized agent. The Customer must designate the Company as its primary interexchange carrier. As long as the Customer remains presubscribed to BTI's network, the following intrastate rates will apply: $0.13 per minute for all Off-Peak period intrastate calls, and $0.19 per minute for all Peak period intrastate calls. Calls will be billed in whole minute increments following an initial billing period of one minute. Additionally, during the first three months of full billing, the Customer will receive twenty (20) promotional minutes of Off-Peak or Peak calling for $0.01 per minute. The promotional minutes cannot be carried forward into subsequent months or pulled forward into the current month. The rates and promotional minutes stated above do not apply to calls using the Company's Travel Services.

3.2 Minutes on Us Promotion II

BTI will offer the following intrastate promotion to Customers who sign-up for the Company's complimentary interstate promotion through February 28, 1996. To be eligible, Customers must: 1) contact the Company to request the promotion, or 2) respond positively to marketing material from the Company or an authorized agent. The Customer must designate the Company as its primary interexchange carrier. As long as the Customer remains presubscribed to BTI's network, the following intrastate rates will apply: $0.139 per minute for all Peak period outbound and inbound intrastate calls, and $0.139 per minute for all Off-Peak period outbound and inbound intrastate calls. Calls will be billed in six (6) second increments following an initial billing period of eighteen (18) seconds. Additionally, the Customer will receive up to 200 minutes of combined interstate and intrastate usage at no charge in the first full month of billing; and up to 200 minutes of combined interstate and intrastate usage at no charge in the seventh full month of billing. If the Customer uses less than 200 minutes per month in the first or seventh month the entire month's usage will be no charge. The free minutes will only apply in the months specified above and will not carry over to future months. The free minutes each month will be applied chronologically regardless of whether the call is interstate or intrastate. The rates and free minutes stated above do not apply to calls using the Company's Travel Services.

Company agrees to refund any amounts remaining on a Pre-paid Call Service calling card upon physical return of the card. Refund will only be issued upon a showing that the service provided by Company has failed to meet either the service requirements set forth in the Commission's rules and regulations, or the general standards of quality applicable to the industry. To qualify for a refund, a user must return the card to Company within 3 months of the original purchase and submit in writing detailed information on the basis for any requested refund. Company will promptly investigate and advise the user as to its findings and disposition.

For consideration of any disputed charges, a user may discuss the dispute with a Company representative, providing detailed information on the basis for any requested adjustment, either verbally or in writing, within 30 days of the date the disputed call is placed.

All federal, state and local taxes (e.g., excise tax, gross receipts tax, sales tax, municipal utilities taxes) are included in the tariffed rates above.

A wholesale discount applies for larger volume commitments, but the end user per minute rate will not vary from the rate specified in the table above.
